

Standard 10.1.1 Analyze the similarities and differences in Judeo-Christian and Greco-Roman views of law, reason and faith, and duties of the individual.

Directions: Place the following terms in the correct category. Terms may be used more than once.

- monotheistic
- polytheistic
- Offered a written language (Latin), a legal system, and well run cities
- Believed in freedom of speech
- Outgrowth of Judaism
- Logic was the key to happiness
- Adherence to the law was superseded by faith in Christ as the path to God
- The most important aspect of society was to obey and respect authority
- All humans are born equal and should be treated equally by the law
- Do not believe in the concept of hell; they believe in a heaven but it is not the focus
- Citizens must obey the laws of the state
- Belief in a Messiah (Jesus)
- Logos-Each and every event, physical and historical, has a place within a larger rational order
- Socrates, Plato and Aristotle
- God judges a person based on their whole lifetime of actions and beliefs
- Granted religious tolerance as long as they (conquered people) also honored the gods
- Belief in the Bible
- Idea of three major types of government started here (oligarchy, democracy, monarchy)
- Beliefs found in the Torah
- Original sin was atoned for by God giving his son
- Had problems with monotheistic religions
- Origin of democracy
- 10 commandments (list of religious and moral imperatives)
- Good works are just as important as belief in God
- Every member of society should do the job it was designed to perform
- Used reason and intelligence rather than superstition to discover predictable patterns
- An individual is a citizen in a state rather than the subject of a ruler
- Taught individual worth, ethical standards, and the need to fight injustice

Standard 10.1.1 Analyze the similarities and differences in Judeo-Christian and Greco-Roman views of law, reason and faith, and duties of the individual.

Judeo-Christian		Greco-Roman
Judaism	Christianity	Greek	Roman